PRESS RELEASE

NAIROBI, 28th July, 2025

For Immediate Release

Inua Jamii Foundation Scam Circulating on Social Media

The Ministry of Labour and Social Protection wishes to alert the public about a fraudulent scheme currently circulating on social media, particularly WhatsApp, falsely operating under the name Inua Jamii Foundation Empowerment. No such organization exists under the Government of Kenya.

This scam, which promises fake financial support, is not sanctioned by the Government. All official communication regarding Inua Jamii cash transfer programmes is disseminated exclusively through verified channels of the Ministry of Labour and Social Protection and the State Department for Social Protection and Senior Citizen Affairs. The public is urged to ignore any messages or links shared via WhatsApp or other platforms purporting to offer Inua Jamii foundation empowerment funds.

Investigations are currently underway in collaboration with law enforcement and cybersecurity agencies to identify and prosecute those responsible.

To report any suspicious activity, please contact inuajamii@socialprotection.go.ke, call Toll-Free 1533, or visit your nearest police station.
